Dear Max:

I wish to confirm the invitation recently extended to you to give the Commencement Address to the members of the Agency's current Midcareer Executive Development Course at 1400 hours, Friday, 20 June 1969. We are delighted at the prospect of your coming and trust that you will be able to meet with the class at that time.

I enclose some data about the Course and its participents. Your session with them may be quite informal with time adjusted to your convenience between presentation and a question and answer period, which the class would most appreciate. You might consider as your subject the significance of intelligence in the decision-making process of our Government.

Please call me if you need any additional information. I have who is in charge of the Course, to contact your office to offer any needed assistance.

Sincerely,

Richard Helms Director

Notes for General Maxwell D. Taylor, USA

The Course is composed of 35 officers who have been selected as having potential for future executive responsibility in the Agency. The students represent a cross-section of the Agency and are in the GS-13 and GS-14 grade level. The average age is 41, and their average Agency experience is 13 years.

Between 11 May and 20 June the class will have had extensive briefings on the missions and programs of the various Agency components and on the functions of other members of the intelligence community. They will have heard discussions of developments and problems in the Soviet Union and its satellites, China, the Middle East, North Africa, Southeast Asia, and Latin America. They will also have had presentations on some of our major domestic issues.

General Taylor is scheduled for 1400 to 1530 hours, Friday, 20 June 1969, in the USIB Conference Room, CIA Headquarters Building.

Dear Max:

I want to confirm the invitation recently extended to you to speak to the members of the Agency's Midcareer Executive Development Course in the USIB Conference Room at Headquarters on Friday, 20 June 1969, at 2 p.m. We are delighted and honored that you will be available to meet with the class at that time.

Your talk will be the Commencement Address for the Midcareerists, and I am attaching some information about the Course and its participants which may be of interest. I want to emphasize that your presentation may be very informal and that the time may be adjusted to suit your convenience. However we have reserved the period from 2:00 to 3:30 to allow time for the question and answer session I'm sure you would like - and the class would most appreciate.

Should you wish to obtain any further information, please give me a call. In any event, I have asked ______ Chief of the Mid. STAT career Course, to get in touch with your office to determine whether or not you would like a briefing.

I can assure you that your visit here will be a great treat for our Midcaresrists, and we all appreciate your taking the time to come out.

Sincerely,

Richard Helms Director
